

In case you are in need of accommodation in the reception centers, the Commissariat for Refugees and Migration of the Republic of Serbia will provide it for you, in designated centers exclusive for Ukrainian nationals.

Beside the necessary information in the center, you will be provided with food, healthcare, clothes, shoes, articles of personal hygiene, occupational and educational activities, inclusion of children in the regular educational system, internet access, psychological and mental distress support, as well as all necessary legal rights and services.

In case you already have accommodations, please report the address of your stay to the municipal trustee for refugees and migrations in the local municipality in which you are staying. He will provide all other necessary information to you.
